THE
 OF THE
MONTREAL LIBRARY.

THE Library will be open from nine o'clock in the morning until four o'clock in the afternoon, every day (Sundays excepted.)

The Library is solely appropriated to the use of the subscribers, and no others are admitted, except non-resident strangers, introduced by subscribers.

Any proprietor or subscriber may take out of the library and retain

One Folio.....	Twelve Days,
One Quarto.....	Ten Days,
Two Octavoes or smaller volumes.....	Eight Days.

Proprietors or subscribers residing in the country, shall be entitled to keep all works one week longer, provided such work shall have been six months in the library.

Any person failing to return a Book on the day appointed, is subject to a fine of five pence each running day, until it is returned or paid for—and is also, 'til then, deprived of the use of the library, and the Librarian has particular orders to enforce this law.

When a fine exceeds four dollars, the excess may be compounded for by the Directors at their discretion, according to the circumstances of the case.

No Books to be delivered from the library to proprietors or subscribers, (or renewed,) without an order in writing, or their initials placed opposite the name of the work, in the register of the library.

Any proprietor or subscriber wishing to renew a Book, must produce the same to the Librarian; but no new work can be renewed, until it has been in the library six months.

The proprietor or subscriber who first applies to the Librarian for any Book, shall have it first, and the others in the order they apply, if they desire him to enter their names for that purpose; and when any subscriber makes application for a Book that is engaged, the Librarian shall inform him when the time allowed for reading it will expire, and if he does not apply for the same the day it is returned, (provided it be duly returned,) the Librarian may deliver it to another subscriber.

No person shall exchange Books twice in the same day.

If any proprietor or subscriber shall lend a Library Book, or receive one from any other person, than the Librarian, he shall forfeit and be deprived the use of the Library, until the forfeit is paid.

Any Book torn or injured in the hands of a proprietor or subscriber, becomes his, and must be paid for double the value with that of the set to which it belongs; and it is incumbent on every person to take care that the Book is in good order before he takes it out, as he will be deprived of the use of the library until this rule is complied with—and any subscriber finding a Book imperfect, is requested to give the Librarian immediate notice.

Books lost to be paid for at the discretion of the Directors.

The Librarian shall keep an exact Catalogue of the Books, to be open at all times to the subscribers, but it shall not be taken out of the library.—Subscribers will be furnished with printed catalogues, upon application to the Librarian, upon paying for the same.

REGLES

MONTREAL.

LA Bibliothèque sera tous les jours ouverte, depuis neuf heures du matin jusqu'à quatre heures de l'après-midi, hors les Dimanches.

La Bibliothèque ne peut servir qu'aux souscripteurs, et nul autre n'y sera admis, à la réserve des étrangers qui ne résident pas sur le lieu, et qui auront été introduits par des souscripteurs.

Tout propriétaire ou souscripteur peut tirer de la Bibliothèque, et retenir

Un in-folio,	douze jours,
Un in-quarto,	dix jours,
Deux octo. ou plus petits vols.	huit jours.

Les propriétaires ou souscripteurs de la campagne auront droit de garder toutes sortes d'ouvrages une semaine de plus, moyennant que l'ouvrage aye été six mois dans la Bibliothèque.

Quiconque manquera de rendre un livre au jour marqué, sera assujetti à cinq pence d'amende par chaque jour qui s'écoulera jusqu'au retour ou paiement d'icelui, et sera de plus privé jusqu'alors de l'usage de la Bibliothèque; et c'est une loi que le Bibliothécaire est particulièrement enjoint à exécuter à la rigueur.

Quand une amende passera quatre piastres, les Directeurs pourront composer à leur discrétion sur le surplus, suivant l'exigence du cas.

Nul livre ne sera transmis de la Bibliothèque aux propriétaires ou souscripteurs, ni renouvelé, sans un ordre par écrit, ou sans que l'on en inscrive les lettres initiales vis-à-vis du titre de l'ouvrage sur le Régistre de la Bibliothèque.

Tout propriétaire ou souscripteur qui voudra continuer d'avoir le meme livre, le produira au Bibliothécaire; mais aucun ouvrage nouveau ne se continuera qu'après avoir été six mois dans la Bibliothèque.

Tel propriétaire ou souscripteur qui demandera le premier un livre au Bibliothécaire, l'aura le premier ; et les autres suivant l'ordre de leurs demandes, s'ils lui proposent d'inscrire leurs noms à cet effet ; et quand un souscripteur voudra avoir un livre qui est entre les mains d'un autre, le Bibliothécaire lui fera sçavoir quand écherra le tems marqué pour le lire ; et s'il ne le redemande pas au jour de son retour, (pouïvu qu'il se rende exactement) le Bibliothécaire pourra le livrer à un autre souscripteur.

Il ne sera loisible à qui que ce soit de changer de livres deux fois le même jour.

Si un propriétaire ou souscripteur prête un livre de la Bibliothèque, ou en reçoit un de tout autre que le Bibliothécaire, il subira une amende et sera privé de l'usage de la Bibliothèque tant qu'il ne l'aura pas payé.

Tout livre déchiré ou gâté entre les mains d'un propriétaire ou souscripteur, deviendra sa propriété ; et il payera le double de sa valeur avec celle de l'ouvrage dont il fera partie ; et c'est à chacun à prendre garde si le livre est en bon ordre avant qu'il lui passe entre les mains, car toute personne sera privée de l'usage de la Bibliothèque tant qu'elle ne se conformera pas à cette règle ; et tout souscripteur qui trouvera un livre en mauvais ordre, est requis d'en donner aussitôt avis au Bibliothécaire.

Les livres perdus se payeront à la discrétion des Directeurs.

Le Bibliothécaire tiendra un catalogue exact des livres, qui sera ouvert en tout tems aux souscripteurs ; mais il ne sortira pas de la Bibliothèque.

Les souscripteurs seront pourvus de Catalogues imprimés, quand ils en demanderont au Bibliothécaire, en les payant.
